Wole Soyinka is a man of his word. The kind of temperament is ultimately exhumed by the strong sentiments held by the writer. Wole Soyinka had said that if Trump won the election he would do a way with his residential status. Indeed Soyinka followed on his word and destroyed his green card when Donald Trump was elected president.

The other writer that further heightened my senses and awareness of African literature was the outspoken and eloquent Nigerian Wole Soyinka. I had read Soyinka's satirical plays and essays that taunted, prodded and questioned everything from corrupt governance on the African continent to the "brain drain" that exported African professional know how and intelligence to Europe and the ...

Wole Soyinka uses two main literary devices to drive home the message of the poem. The first of the two is imagery. Right at the beginning, the imagery used to describe the mental image the man has of the woman: "lipstick coated, gold rolled cigarette holder piped", just from listening to her voice shows one that he thinks that she is, socially speaking above him, from a higher social class.

Prof. Wole Soyinka: does not like Abacha. I was thrilled and excited when I began to read Sadiq Abacha's open missive to Wole Soyinka because he began with solid logical premises, and wonderfully tied his fundamental statements to these bases in logic. I take great pleasure in discussions entrenched firmly in logic.
